"Waiting On The Lord"

Brothers and sisters, it has been said that we live in a microwave society. We want everything quick, fast and in a hurry. Seems the only people I know with a lot of patients (patience) are doctors. We can get our oil changed in 15 minutes and our brakes done in 30 minutes. We have fast planes and fast cars, good roads, and plenty of gas, and we take advantage of them.

We have instant coffee, instant mashed potatoes and have minute rice. We have instant pudding and TV dinners from freezer to the table in 60 seconds. We have automatic washing machines and automatic clothes dryers. No one hangs up clothes on a line anymore and waits for the sun to dry them. Just set the timer on your washing machine or clothes dryer and with little effort from you, it's done.

But what if God sends you to the waiting room? How do you handle the wait? Listen, sometimes we are forced to wait. You are at Wal-Mart with just a few items, but all the lines are long and you are forced to wait. Or there you are sitting in traffic, bumper-to-bumper cars stretched out behind you and in front of you as far as the eye could see. Maybe there had been an accident miles ahead; but here you are, waiting. Maybe you are waiting for the right job. Maybe you are waiting for the right spouse. Here's one: waiting for your spouse to finally become the person you want them to be. Maybe you are sick, waiting on your healing. Have you ever thought about this? There's many situations God uses as His waiting room.

Why is it that we grumble and complain when we have to wait? Have you ever thought about this? Well, I believe, first we do so because no one enjoys waiting. We feel we are losing valuable time because we seemingly are unproductive during those times of waiting. But it is during those times of waiting that God is productive in you. So when you wait, you need to learn how to rest in your waiting and not complain.

Secondly, we grumble and complain when we wait because somehow we feel that we don't deserve to wait. So we end up asking, "Why me?" Well, why not you? Christians must understand that we are in boot camp in the army of the Lord. Listen, God is not so much concerned with our Comfort as He is with our Character. He's more concerned with us being Holy than He is with us being Happy. He is more concerned with our Maturity than our Ministry.

Listen, the greater God desires to use you, the more time He invests His character building curriculum in you. God is more interested in what He can do in you and through you, so let Him have His way. God is calling for you to have patience when you go through your times of waiting.

The word "wait" does not suggest that we sit around and do nothing. It means "to hope," to (Continued from Page 1) look to God for all that we need. This involves meditating on His character and His promises, praying, and seeking to glorify Him. There will come a time when the wait is over, and the promise is fulfilled.

Isaiah 40:31 (KJV)

³¹ But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Prayer and Supplication for our Pastor

Father God in the name of Jesus, we come now lifting this persistent, specific and Expectant petition for our Pastor.

Father we pray that you'll continually give him wisdom to speak your truth in clarity and without fear. Keep him bold in his studies and bold in his proclamation. Give him the strength every day to do everything that you called him to do. Keep him assured that You are the source of his strength, and You are the strength of his life.

God we pray that You purge from his body all sickness, disease, aches and pains and keep his mind stayed on You, as he take time to rest both physically and spiritually, so that he can daily reflect the true rest that only You can provide.

Father as we close this prayer, we pray also for his family. Lord God, we pray You continue to build their faith and confidence. Help them not to deviate from their course. We pray oh gentle Shepherd, that You lead them daily, where You want them to go.

We pray this prayer in the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and count these things already done.
Amen, Amen and Amen.

SAFETY TIPS

Hello, take a short break from the sales stuff and read this article written by a Police Officer, it may save your life or a loved one's life. In daylight hours, refresh yourself of these things to do in an emergency situation. This is for you, and for you to share with your wife/husband, your children, & everyone you know. After reading these crucial tips, forward them to someone you care about. It never hurts to be careful in this crazy world we live in.

1. Tip from Tae Kwon Do: The elbow is the strongest point on your body. If you are close enough to use it, do!
2. Learned this from a tourist guide. If a robber asks for your wallet and/or purse, DO NOT HAND IT TO HIM. Toss it away from you... Chances are that he is more interested in your wallet and/or purse than you, and he will go for the wallet/purse. RUN LIKE MAD IN THE OTHER DIRECTION!
3. If you are ever thrown into the trunk of a car, kick out the back tail lights and stick your arm out the hole and start waving like crazy.. The driver won't see you, but everybody else will. This has saved lives.
4. Women have a tendency to get into their cars after shopping, eating, working, etc., and just sit (doing their checkbook, or making a list, etc. DON'T DO THIS!) The predator will be watching you, and this is the perfect opportunity for him to get in on the passenger side, put a gun to your head, and tell you where to go. AS SOON AS YOU GET INTO YOUR CAR , LOCK THE DOORS AND LEAVE.. If someone is in the car with a gun to your head DO NOT DRIVE OFF, Repeat: DO NOT DRIVE OFF! Instead gun the engine and speed into anything, wrecking the car. Your Air Bag will save you. If the person is in the back seat they will get the worst of it. As soon as the car crashes bail out and run. It is better than having them find your body in a remote location.
5. A few notes about getting into your car in a parking lot, or parking garage: A.) Be aware: look around you, look into your car. Always be alert to your surroundings. Walk with confidence. Keep your head up and look around. Look directly at people but do not stare at them. Trust your instincts when you feel something is not right.
6. Do not dig in your purse or bag.
7. Do not wear headphones or be distracted by a cell phone conversation.
8. Do not carry heavy briefcases or bags that may get in the way.
9. Do not carry any type of weapon, including pepper spray. Weapons can just as easily be used against you and are illegal in some jurisdictions.

Home Remedies

1) Oil Away Aches and Pains (Hot Oil For Quick Relief) - A Castor Oil Pack is a traditional remedy to soothe and heal injured muscles, and it's easy to use. Just apply some Castor Oil to the area and cover it with plastic wrap, then top it off with a Heating Pad set on "low". The heat will help the oil penetrate your skin, where it will ease the pain and any stiffness. Leave the pack on for about 30 minutes, then wash the oil off. You can repeat the treatment twice a day until your muscles heal. Caution: Don't use this treatment for acute injuries.

2) Snappy Solutions - One of the best ways to relieve muscle aches is to eat some pumpkin seeds. They are loaded with fatty acids that lower the levels of the body chemicals that are responsible for muscle aches. So just chew some seeds during the day, and you should be able to say good-bye to your muscle aches. Also, for those cramps that get you in the legs at night, have some lemon water each nt before you go to bed and that should alleviate most of them. I hope these hints will help to keep you healthy and moving as you go from day to day.

5 REASONS TO SAY "YES" TO GOD

God always enables us to do whatever He requires, but yet many times we're afraid to obey Him because we don't know what will happen as a result. So obedience is costly.

However, we know that God always does what's best for us, which should enable us to trust Him and leave all the consequences to Him. Therefore, obeying God means that we:

1. Recognize that God is the sovereign ruler of this universe. Because He allows the freedom to make choices, Psalm 103:19 assures us that "His sovereignty rules over all." When we acknowledge His right as the Creator to reign over the earth, we also recognize our responsibility to submit to Him as our authority.
2. Have faith. If we're going to obey God, we must believe what He says. Hebrews 11:6: "He who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him." The Lord loves us and has chosen the best path for our lives if we will follow Him. But unbelief is the enemy of obedience, and the consequences of rebelling against Him are terrible.
3. Be courageous. When the Lord picked Joshua to lead His people into the Promised Land, He told him, "Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go." (Josh. 1:9). God knew that as Joshua obeyed, he would face all kinds of difficulties and challenges that required confident boldness. This has been the common experience of all the Lord's prophets and apostles, and it will be the same for us as well. We must be careful not to let fear stop us from fully obeying the Lord.
4. Wait upon the Lord. God's timing is always perfect, but from our perspective, it may seem slow. If we focus on our circumstances or the advice of others, we may be tempted to jump ahead of the Lord, but Isaiah 64:4 says that God "acts in behalf of the one who waits for Him." When we wait for the Lord, we are not sitting idle but are being sensitive to His direction before making decisions. He knows all the facts and the perfect timing for every situation.
5. Meditate on God's Word. To obey, we must first know what the Lord wants us to do. That's why He told Joshua, "This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it." (Josh. 1:8). To meditate means to mull something over in our minds and reflect on it. If we desire to follow the Lord, the Bible must fill our minds and hearts and become our text for living. Meditation helps us thoughtfully consider His directions, promises, and truths and apply them to our lives. As we read and meditate on His Word, it will challenge us to examine ourselves, and if necessary, change our thoughts, attitudes, and behaviors.

How is your obedience affected by your level of trust in the Lord? When circumstances or outcomes tempt us to doubt, remember that you can rely on Him. Our faith is not blind. God has proven Himself worthy and enables us to handle anything that comes our way..

ARE YOUR GUILTY?????

Let's take a look at ourselves and think about what we realistically see when we look into the mirror regarding our children. Do we see a parent who at any cost will tell their children what they need to hear and what's pleasing to God, or will we tell them what they want to hear and remain their friends?

I, personally, was guilty, not because I wanted to be my son's friend, but because I was in denial and wanted to believe he would never do anything that he knew would upset me or go against how we brought him up. But the truth of the matter was, he knew that I gave him the benefit of the doubt and believed he would not lie to me. The handwriting was on the wall, but yet I was guilty. Until I was able to accept my responsibility as a parent, God did not move. It was when I owned up and truly sought my God, that He moved and turned it all around for my son's good.

More and more in today's time, I see some families that are doing very well financially. As a result they lean more to being guilty of "Giving" to their children rather than teaching them the value, so that they can appreciate that nothing is automatically given to you, but you have to earn what you get.

So I say to you, don't think you love your child any more than anyone else loves theirs, because you don't. We have to stop enabling our children by always doing things they should be doing for themselves, especially after they are grown. Don't mistake your love for them to be justification to do those things they should be doing, especially in the realm of their everyday responsibilities. Please don't mistake what I'm saying. that we shouldn't ever help our children if they get in a jam, or if they need something on an emergency basis. I'm saying we are handicapping our children when we aid them monthly by paying their bills or giving them money to pay their monthly obligations, even though they no longer live at home. Nor are you helping your son/daughter if you know they are doing something wrong and you turn your back to keep from dealing with it.

Our unconditional love for our children should never be mistaken for being guilty for what we didn't do for them. I'm grateful to God that I learned before it was too late. But more importantly, I thank God for the man it made my son to be.

POSITIVE MESSAGE

You Must First Love Yourself!

God has kept me here for a reason. I survived because He has a plan for me. All my bad relationships, the bad credit, the repossessions, the death of my loved ones, the back stabbing from my friends and family, the negative thoughts, or the lack of support; I made it because I am blessed! I release and let go of all past hurts, misunderstandings and grudges because I am blessed! (Genesis 31:49 - The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another).

Now is not the time for you to give up on the Lord. He is able to come see about you. Just because He has not shown up when you thought He should have, does not mean He will not show up. During this season, your faith needs to be stable. The enemy desires to do whatever it takes to destroy you. (Psalms 37:25 - I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread) I know even if God shows up at the last minute, He is still on time.

Do you realize God has created important numbers for us to remember? While our numbers are dialed to call man, God's numbers (scriptures) are used to call Him. When was the last time you sat down and dialed the numbers God provided to you? In case of an emergency dial 911 (Psalms 91:1 - He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty) When dialing this 911 you are never placed on hold!

How Long Should We Grieve?

Six months, 1 year, 2 years or longer. The truth of the matter is there is no manual printed that tells us how long we should grieve or how we should grieve the death of a loved one. It doesn't matter if your loved one has had an extended illness or dies suddenly, we don't have the right to say that a person has grieved enough. What we can continue to tell them is that "Earth has no sorrow, that heaven cannot heal" and that God never puts more on us than we can bear. In addition, we don't have the right to say to someone about their elderly loved one that you shouldn't grieve them because they lived a full life. That's the more reason why it would be hard to deal with their death, because they have been around for a long time.

It goes without saying that everyone grieves differently, and again there is no correct way to grieve. Depending on the circumstances, there are reasons some deal in the manner they do. For instance, if you know you didn't do what you should have done for your loved one while he/she was living and something happens, then you have to deal with your guilty conscience, which sometimes make you act like a real fool. Then there are those times that you did everything you were supposed to and show no emotions at all. There are cases where a person is very emotional and has done everything for their loved one but just can't control themselves and act in a manner of someone who may be guilty. Nonetheless it still doesn't leave much room for us to be judgmental because none of us has the right to say how anyone should really feel as a result of the demise of their family member.

I guess if there was a manual it would tell you how long you should grieve based on the relationship of your loved one. Your spouse, your children, and your parents would be among the top three for a long length of time, with some discretions within those categories. What if you wake up one day 3 or 4 years down the road and really have a bad day because something happened that triggered a flash back and it seemed like it was just yesterday and you become very emotional. Can one say you were wrong because it's been too long? Absolutely not!!!

My recommendation is to continue to seek God and He will see you through. He promised to never leave or forsake us. It does get better by and by.
