PASTOR'S MESSAGE

It's Thanksgiving!

There was a fourth-grade boy who was asked to give a report on Thanksgiving, and to read it to the entire class. The teacher reminded him that he needed to be politically correct. "Remember, there are certain things that you are not allowed to say in public school because it might offend others."

On the day of the report the boy stood and read, "The Pilgrims came here from England seeking freedom of you know what. When they got here they gave thanks to you know who. And because of them, we can worship each Sunday at you know where."

On the fourth Thursday of this month, we celebrate Thanksgiving. Brothers and sisters, there is something just marvelous about Thanksgiving. It can be defined as a time when congregations and families reflect upon the works that God has done in the past, while anticipating His continued blessing and favor in the future.

It's Thanksgiving! Time for all of that home cooking; time for all of that home baking; time for family get-togethers. But it's Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving means "Thanks must be given."

Listen, we live in a society where people try to take God out of Thanksgiving and attempt to find other ways to keep from saying "Thank you, God." I hear people saying, "Thank goodness," instead of saying, "Thank God." What is thank goodness? Who is goodness? Does goodness have a name? I also hear people saying, "I thank my lucky stars." Where are your lucky stars? How do you get them? How do you get the stars to work for you?

The Psalmist tells us in Psalm 92:1 - It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High. We must have an attitude of gratitude. And our gratitude must be directed to God.

1 Thessalonians 5:18 (KJV) - In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. Notice, Paul didn't say, "for everything," but "In everything." There is always something for which to give thanks; even in our darkest days there are blessings to count. We must remember that if we face the sun, the shadows will always fall behind us; but if we turn our backs on the sun, the shadows will always be in front. Thanksgiving is a vital element of worship.

Psalm 121:1-2 (KJV) - I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. So, brothers and sisters, you've got to give "thanks." You've got to say it. You've got to articulate it. Thanksgiving is not Thanksgiving until you give it.

There is so much, even under all circumstances, to be thankful for. Whatever you are going through, if you still have life, health, food, clothing, air, water, friends, yes, even your enemies. Yes, in all these things we should give thanks.

I hear you thinking, "How can I give thanks for my beat-up car?" Well, thank God you have a car. You say, "Rev., I don't have a car." Well, thank God you have feet. You say, "Rev., I can't walk." Well, thank God that you have a wheelchair. You say, "Rev., I am confined to a bed." You mean you are in a bed and know it? There are many who are confined to a bed and don't know it. Be thankful!

Happy Thanksgiving

Pastor and Lady Herring, Sr.

Prayer for our Pastor

Father God, in the precious name of Jesus, we come thanking You for the privilege of once again being able to lift this petition on behalf of our Pastor. Father, we thank You for keeping him safe from all hurt, harm and danger. It is our prayer that You will continuously order his steps; we ask that You bless his going out and bless his coming in. Father, we pray that his blessings overtake him. Oh God, keep a hedge around him; You made him and You know all about him, even the number of hairs on his head. Father, we know that You can and we are just asking that You will. Lord Jesus, as we close this prayer, we pray for his family. We ask that You give them a closer walk with Thee. Keep them also on the straight and narrow as they do Your will. Lord, we count all these blessing already done and close this prayer in the precious name of Your darling Son, Jesus Christ. Thank God and Amen.

He's Preparing You

God Knows What He Is Preparing You For! He knows when, where and how to use you. He doesn't need to consult a board, a church conference, or someone else to approve His decisions. 1 Corinthians 2:9 – "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." When everything appears chaotic just trust because God knows what He is doing.

Three F Words

Focus

How we perceive a situation and how we react to it is the basis of our stress. If you focus on the negative in any situation, you can expect high stress levels. However, if you try and see the good in the situation, your stress levels will greatly diminish.

Faith

Though many are the forces threatening our Christian family unity, we must encourage one another and build each other up in the faith.

Forgiveness

The goal then is to pay that forward and encourage others to do the same while leading a righteous life by example, always striving to forgive the trespasses of others and forgive yourself as well.

Behold, The Bridegroom Cometh!

For the culmination of our Fundraiser, "Sow a Seed to Pay the Deed," Sis. Ruthie Prime and her project staff presented a powerful interpretation of "Behold, The Bridegroom Cometh," which was performed Sunday, October 22, 2017, after Morning Worship. Matthew 25:6 - "And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, The Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him." Each bride was named for a Fruit of the Spirit, and through written word and song, the story of Jesus' coming was presented. The cast was as follows: Narrators, Mia and Faith Jenkins; Brides: Auree Crane – Love, Ramiah Herring – Hope, Vicki Barney – Joy, Nadia Baker – Patience, Sherica Frazier-Peace, Ronalda Nelson – Faith, Patricia Crane – Goodness, Juanita Cooks – Gentleness, Priscilla Thomas – Long Suffering, and Richard "Tony" Hartsfield - Jesus.

Reflection on Fall

It is interesting to discover what causes the beautiful colors of fall in the eastern deciduous forests, and to realize it may be an analogy of what happens to all of us sooner or later in our lives. The color changes are caused by a very complex bio-chemical process, but it can be summarized very simply. The chlorophyll pigment that produces the brilliant greens of summer breaks down as the days grow shorter and colder. The pigments of yellow, orange and red that are masked by the green can then begin to show through. It is not a new color. The color has always been there, but only now, when the tree or shrub can no longer mask it with chlorophyll does it become visible.

Something of this same kind of thing can happen in a human life. When we no longer need to hide behind our masks, when we discover who we are as children of a loving and faithful God, we can allow our true selves to emerge. The analogy works in another way also. When we are no longer able to mask our true selves (this usually happens as we grow older), the truth of what we have made of our lives begins to emerge. It is often true that we do not change as we grow older, we simply become more intensely what we have grown to be. One whose personality has been angry or domineering or unfriendly usually will become more so with aging. Those are truths worth pondering and learning from.

Watching the leaves turn can offer us valuable lessons about ourselves. But certainly the most important lessons from the natural world have to do with the One who is Lord of all nature. The beauty of fall is a reflection of the beauty of the Creator. And the process that leads from summer to fall and then to the death of wintertime is a reminder of our own mortality. But that is never the end. Spring comes again. God has promised us the gift of new life and springtime is its herald. Our task is simply to live out the seasons of our lives as fully as we can, and in so doing, to experience the deep joy and beauty that God offers us all. When that happens, the image of God in each of us emerges.

HAPPENING

A Community Affair

On Saturday, October 7, 2017, the neighbors of what is known as the "Bottom Creekers" came together to celebrate our heritage and acknowledge those who enhanced our lives. The "Master of Ceremony" was Dennis Gamble, with Willie "Bo" Walker presenting the history of the community and this event, our 20th Anniversary Celebration. Elder Sarah Webb Rhodes spoke of her Aunt Sarah Webb Rice, who was a leader not only in the community, but a leader in Mt. Bethel Baptist Church, received many degrees, authored "He Included Me," and introduced many souls to Christ. Juan Glover spoke of his mother, Juanita Glover, who was a seamstress, and made numerous uniforms for all that needed them for serving in ministries in Mt. Bethel Baptist Church. She was also an accomplished baker, President of Usher Board 1, was a lead singer in the choir, was a Sunday School Teacher, and nurtured all that crossed her path. Rev. Michael McCoy spoke of his father, who was a brick mason who helped built homes for many in the neighborhood along with performing home repairs. He also noted that we as a community always took care of each other and we respected our friends and neighbors. They were our families.

Anthony Walker, Kenny Rogers, and Donell Walker were our barbeque masters, and others supplied the side dishes. After the blessing, lunch was served. There were games and music, and balloons were released to remember our loved ones who have transitioned on. We pray that next year this becomes a bigger and greater event.

Oh, Give Thanks!

The time is here where we in the United States and many other countries pause to give thanks. Thanksgiving is also known as Harvest Festival in some cultures. The United States, Canada, Liberia, Netherlands, Norfolk Island and Grenada are thought to celebrate it best. <http://thecountriesof.com/what-countries-celebrate-thanksgiving-day/>

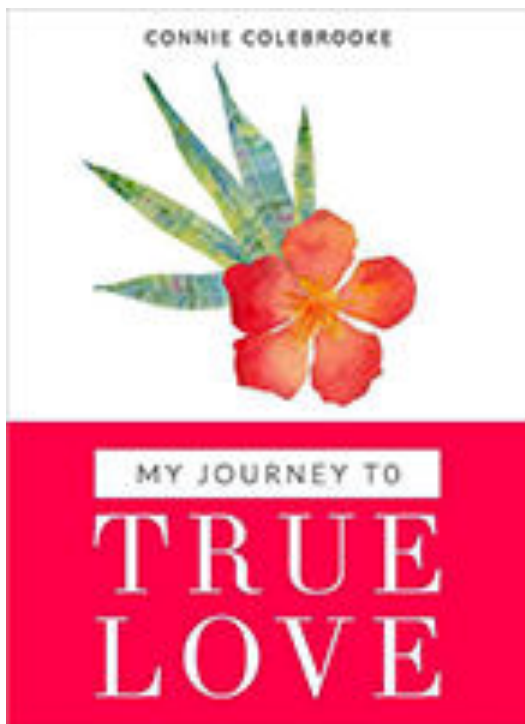

Giving is a verb, and many religions follow the practice of giving of tithes (Catholic, Mormon, Baptist, Baha'i*, Methodist, Presbyterian, Pentecostal, Evangelical, Islam*, Episcopalian, Hinduism*, Adventists). This list of course is not thought to be all inclusive. <http://www.tithing.com/blog/comparing-denominations-and-religions-that-tithe/>

As a member of the Judeo-Christian (Missionary Baptist) Faith I have chosen to adhere to the Malachi 3:8-12 (KJV) scripture and bring tithes into the church. I don't debate this scripture because I have truly witnessed the blessings that come because of my obedience. When I purchase a car, I sign the contract that says I will pay a certain amount until the car is paid in full. This is how I view my contract with my faith. I have struggled over the years with being a faithful tithes payer on those occasions when I have been overtaken by my bad financial decisions. This is when I would say, "The Lord knows my true motivation." (smile)

My commitment now (givelify makes it easy www.givelify.com) is to hit the givelify app as soon as my monies hit the bank. I know I feel better when things get tight and I can hold Father God to His word, to "rebuke the devourer for my sake" - Malachi 3:11.... There are times when I feel like the children of Israel with the Manna. God provides just enough for that day or that month or that situation. The key word here is of course "providing;" He always does. It may not be the way I thought; sometimes I just receive the wisdom to do without the purchase or some other better choice comes along. I simply say, "Okay Lord, I got it." And I just move along.

Members and Friends, I ask that you please continue to pray for me as I strive to do God's will for my life. Until next time, I'll continue #SharingLifeLessons as Connie Sue Writes.

By: Connie Sue (Minister Connie Bend)

BOOK SHELF

My Journey To True Love is the autobiography of Minister Connie Bend. It tells the story of her up-bringing in a small, segregated Southern town. It is the story of a search for love and trust. With openness and honesty, Connie shares her path of heartache, disappointment, and struggle.

Appropriately, her Book Signing was Monday, September 25, 2017, in Perry, Florida, Min. Bend's hometown, and was a great success, even attended by two former Mayors of Perry. Like other professional women, she was taxed with finding true love amid the pressures of discovering someone that would fit into her social circles. The book will lead you on a journey through Connie's life, from her childhood to her fourth marriage, which ended in divorce after Connie Sue discovered her husband was cheating. As she tells her story, tears may flow, but in the end, you will find yourself rooting for our heroine.

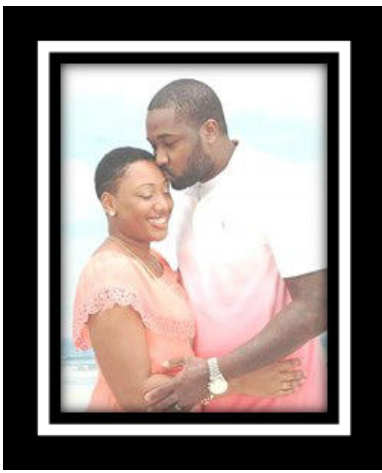

Min. Bend states: "In order to love, you have to trust, so true love always makes us vulnerable. However, being that exposed is perfectly fine if you really love someone. The hard part of this entire situation is learning to be open and to let yourself go. At Connie Sue WRITES INC., we want to help you with that, so we have published a touching book about self-discovery, which follows a woman's journey through life. This story proves that when you put all other things aside, you can find love, and you can find your- self."

My Journey To True Love can help men and women truly think about who they really are, and demonstrates how someone who strives to follow God's will can eventually come to a place of trust and love. Once you've read her story, you will feel as if you have taken the trip with her.

The cost is $10.00 and will be available through the church library, or www.amazon.com. She may be followed on conniesueblog or <https://conniesuewrites.com>.

Post note: Min. Connie's commitment is to relationship building techniques. She teaches classes to churches, schools, community organizations and professional associations. Her practical and open honesty have led to her tremendous success!

Congratulations

The wedding bells rang on April 13, 2017, for Quiyana Pollard and Marvin Whitley, witnessed and supported by family and friends. Quiyana is the daughter of Sis. Chiquita Harris and Brian Pollard and the granddaughter of Sis. Renetta McIntosh. Marvin is the son of Ms. Jean Reid and Marcus Whitley. We pray and rejoice with them as they begin their marital journey.

CELEBRATING BRAM

Honoring Those Who Served

All veterans of Mt. Bethel will be honored on 2nd Sunday, November 12, 2017, during 11:00 am Worship. Please contact Dea. Anthony Davis, Sr. or his daughter, Sis. Jacole Davis, to submit names of members who ever served in the U.S. Armed Forces, whether still living or deceased, so that they may be recognized.

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 an armistice between Germany and the Allied Nations came into effect. On November 11, 1919, Armistice Day was commemorated for the first time.

The day should be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory.

On June 1, 1954, November 11 became a day to honor all American veterans, wherever and whenever they had served. Veterans Day is generally regarded today as honoring all those who ever served in the U.S. Armed Force rather than only those who actually fought in a war.

Ministry News

All ministries and districts are asked to hold their elections as soon as possible. All changes of presidents, chairmen and directors should be submitted to the church office by Sunday, November 26, 2017. Deacons, Ministry Leaders and Secretaries were given this information during the October 12, 2017 meeting.

Any Districts not represented at the last Leadership meeting did not receive the new Church Policies and Procedures Handbooks. Books should be distributed one per family in your district meeting. Please contact the church office to receive your books.

Districts are asked to provide the church office with an updated membership list by the end of the year. Please include current address, telephone number and email address of each member.

Child Dedication

Baby De'Asiah N. Harold was dedicated to God on Sunday, September 24, 2017, during the Morning Worship. Loving and supportive family and friends were in attendance. Her parents, De'Andre Harold and Shareena Milton, have entrusted Job and Tamika Milton to be her Godparents, to help them care and guide her life through God's Word. Dear Lord, we pray that you equip us all with the spirit of love and nurturing toward the children around us, that You may be glorified through them. Amen.

Turkeys Needed

The Mt. Bethel Food Pantry is in need of ten (10) Turkeys for Thanksgiving Baskets. Please contact Sis. Janice Jones at (904) 765-3424 as soon as possible.

GOD BELONGS IN MY CITY PRAYER WALK

Every morning, afternoon and evening when you turn on the TV, pick up a newspaper, or surf the internet you are bombarded with news of murders, robberies, kidnapping, and the list goes on and on. Christians have started to fight back because enough is enough. Each year throughout the country there are "prayer walks" where young and old come together for a common cause, to pray for their city's troubles. Prayer walks were held in Houston, Dallas and Jacksonville on October 21, 2017. Mr. and Mrs. Alan and Maryann

Diaz have led prayer walks in our city for the past seven years, and this year, through the encouragement of Ministers Eric and Tonya Houston, Mt. Bethel was represented with ten walkers and several volunteers. Starting at A. Philip Randolph Park our first stop was at the Jacksonville Memorial Arena where we sang and prayed for businesses and marriages in the city. The next stop was the First Coast News Station next to the stadium where we prayed for the educational system, led by Ministers Houston. Next was the downtown Duval County jail where we prayed for the incarcerated and for the leaders of this nation. Our last stop was the Sulzbacher Center where Mt. Bethel prayed with the citizens who were sitting along the street and another group of walkers prayed with folks who were around the corner. Sis. Patricia Scott brought along a huge first aid kit bag to assist any walkers who may have needed attention along the route. Dea. John Scott followed the route in his vehicle to assist any walkers who were not able to finish. He also utilized his DJI Phantom 4 drone to take aerial photos and videos at each of the stops.

Data: 215 participants at the prayer walk; 34 Volunteers w/ Free GBIMC volunteer shirt; 75 families in the Eastside area blessed with FREE groceries; 100 GBIMC shirts donated to the Youth. All in all, a great spiritual unity was felt by all that participated, and a special thank you to the Houstons and all the supporters. They will keep us abreast of information concerning next year's walk to be held on October 20, 2018.
